To all who see presents, greeting:
Know ye that for his service to his client and the profession in having conspicuously displayed those qualities of lawyerly character exemplified by an aggressive search for the truth, an unwavering devotion to justice and an unyielding zealously in advocacy.

Is, by the vote of the Directors of the Louisiana Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers and in honor of the memory of Neal Walker, a lawyer who lived to implement the simple truth that it is "Better that ten guilty persons escape than that one innocent suffer," admitted to Blackstone's Order. Done and signed, on this the 11th day of December in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand and Fifteen, and the Two Hundred and Thirty-Eighth year of the Independence of these United States of America.
